

SPECIALIST TRAINING COURSE CALL FOR ENTRIES 2023-2024

HORSEMANSHIP

---

This training provides the participants with the knowledge they need to achieve a broader education as a dressage rider, enabling them to develop their careers professionally. This training is extended to four years.

The course is structured in two cycles, each of them of two school years. Although the overarching element is the practice of Dressage, the first course constitutes an approach to the basic aspects, and with the second course, pupils obtain a specialization in educational, recreational and sports sectors.

During the training, the pupils take part in many of the Royal School's activities: galas, exhibition performances, events or reportages, and going outs to the competitions.

ENTRANCE EXAM

The applicants must complete two exams: a theoretical part and a practical part.

- Theoretical exam: This consists of thirty (30) questions dealing with topics referenced in the bibliography, one point (1) each question of a test-exam. To have the option of carrying out the following exam, the applicant must have obtained a mark of more of the 66% in the test-exam.

Bibliography:

1. Podhajsky, Alois: La equitación clásica. Sevilla: Lettera, 2006. ISBN: 84-96060-35-7.
2. Reglamento de Doma Clásica de la RFHE.
3. Reglamento General de la RFHE.

- Practical exam: It consists of executing a Classical Dressage test (attached to this document) on a 60 X 20 m. track. This exercise will be done from memory and each applicant will be assigned a horse by public drawing.

This test is judged by five teachers from this Foundation. The highest and the lowest scores obtained will be excluded, being calculated the average with the other three remaining scores.

- FINAL MARK ANDEXAM RESULTS: This will be the average of the marks obtained in the theoretical and practical exercises, considering that the former counts for 30% of the mark and the latter for 70%. The assignation of places will be strictly by order of marks. If two applicants obtain the same final mark, the best mark achieved in the practical test shall be decisive, and in case of a tie, it will be determined by the best average of the total marks obtained in the practical test.
